

YOU ARE INVITED
TO BE
THE BREATH, BEING EVERYTHING!

The synergistic quality of Loveality is a frequency,
A level of understanding.
It is a point of Present Being,
Not an occupation or realization.

A question of quantification is to use the Mind to mark the edges of the boundless.
The Mind is the great separator, partitioning off beliefs, segmenting realities.
The realizations it imposes are in the form of divisions and linear creations.

Instead, be beautiful ecstasy,
Breathing in Loveality,
Joining – not as separate entities, no divisions.
Yes to All Things.
Not separate.

The bridge itself is a breathing point of entry.
It is not a being in the transitory understanding.
The Bridge of Being.
Yes to Loveality.

The Mind ships were crafted from ancient ways of being...
Abandon old soldering from the iron upon which the fires of illusion melt.
Smoldering heat that has transformed all energy captured in suspended breath.

Exhale. Exhale. Exhale.

Releasing Nothing.
Being Everything.
It is a Free Breath.
Yes to Loveality!

If the breath is held in and the exhale is not released, where can be the peace? Upon what is an individual's course charted? Is it the wind of an unseen destiny, rowing, constantly rowing the oars of ship toward a horizon point in a Mind so convinced it be unreachable? Are you the breath of being and receiving, or are you breathless from your constant trying and doing? Can you set yourself into the water of receiving today, void of Mind's need? Welcoming today without a map, breathing, being... You are not separate. You are one with the gloriousness of everything!
